I need to be able to jog in peace from dogs

I GO to Eltham Park South for jogging as it is a lovely park where the trees and flowers are so pretty, and I must say that it is one of the few parks where dogs owners are very responsible as I don't find any dog litter, which is such a relief. But in the last two weeks there is one particular dog which has scared me to death. I really like dogs and apart from this dog, all the rest are very well behaved. Last week, when I was jogging, this particular dog suddenly came running towards me and really took the life out of me. When I complained to the owners, both were very rude. Now I am scared to jog in the park because instead of relaxing, I am going to be wary all the time and I think that is unfair.

Shaista Farooq, New Eltham

● We are sorry to hear about these incidents regarding an intimidating dog and its irresponsible owners. Park managers have arranged extra dog enforcement patrols. Enforcement action can and will be taken if the person walking the dog refuses to comply with Dog Control Orders. We hope you will continue to visit and enjoy the park.

Cyclists should stop moaning and start to obey the law

Star Letter

ALL the time we see items in the press from cyclists about their problems, a large part of which are caused by the fact that they do not obey the law. I am 76 and walk with a stick (two arthritic knees and an arthritic spine). On Monday the 30th of April I was walking down Powis Street towards Argos.

I noticed three cyclists (all wearing crash helmets, obviously concerned about their own safety) riding towards me. I also noticed a lady walking from a shop. One of the cyclists approached her from behind and passed between her and the shop front. Cyclists often cycle in the pedestrian only area. A pedestrian will be badly injured or killed by one of these selfish cyclists who have no regard for other people's safety. It is about time that the rule of law was enforced and the cyclists should be stopped and charged. It is the only way to protect the pedestrian in Powis Street.

Anthony Adams, Woolwich

I'm so grateful

MAY I use your letters page to thank the staff and customers at Morrisons in Thamesmead who were so considerate to my parents when my mother fell in the store on Friday, June 8. In particular, to the kind gentleman who stayed with her from the moment she fell until she was put into the ambulance. No bones were broken and, thanks to the professionalism of all the staff at the A&E at Queen Elizabeth Hospital, she is now on the mend. My family and I are extremely grateful.

Sue Edwards, Abbey Wood

Looking out for PARKSfest story?

IN our response to last week's letter about the GreenwichCard, (Now's the time for GreenwichCard concessions) we referred to an article about PARKSfest on p9. The article was held over just before we went to press so readers turning to read about PARKSfest wouldn't have found it. The article about the festival of outdoor events (Parties in the parks!) appears on p9 of this issue. Our apologies.

Zoe selected!

18-year-old weightlifter makes Olympic team

by Peter Cordwell

WE'VE definitely got one Royal Borough resident selected to compete for Team GB in the London 2012 Olympic Games – and it could soon be two.

Just days after learning that Andy Barrow has been selected for the wheelchair rugby team in the Paralympics, 18-year-old Zoe Smith is in the five-strong weightlifting team. And she could be joined by 25-year-old judo star Gemma Gibbons, from Charlton, who's waiting to hear that her amazing late run for a place has been successful.

All have been supported by Greenwich Starting Blocks, the charity set up to help elite athletes achieve their dreams.

"I'm elated to have been selected for the team," said Zoe from Abbey Wood. "It has been a nerve-wracking period ahead of selection, so I'm glad that I've now secured my place and can definitely say I'll be representing Team GB at the Games!"

Zoe said the support she received from Greenwich Starting Blocks, the charity set up to help young athletes dreaming of reaching the top, was crucial to her success. "They showed faith in me right from the start when I was just 13," she said. "At that age, just knowing people outside of your immediate family and friends believe in you is incredibly important."

"It encouraged me to train hard to prove them right and I think I can safely say I've done that now."

"Starting Blocks paid for my mum to watch me at the World Championships, and I'm proud to represent Royal Greenwich. I was born in Greenwich Hospital and went to De Lucy primary school at the bottom of my garden."

Her mum, Niki, told GT: "Even though we'd expected it, actually having it confirmed that Zoe will now definitely become an Olympian is quite mind-blowing really! As a family we obviously couldn't be more pleased or proud for her."

Zoe is the youngest member of the weightlifting team and will be competing in the Women's 58kg category. She will be aiming to improve on her personal best during the competition that takes place at the ExCeL Arena in London Docklands from July 28 to August 7.

Originally a gymnast, Zoe has broken youth, junior and senior records on her way to Olympic selection. She won the bronze medal at the 2010 Commonwealth Games when still only 16.

This week another Starting Blocks athlete, Gemma Gibbons is about to hear if she's been selected for Team GB too. A member of the Metro Judo Club that's just moved into a new home at Thomas Tallis school in Kidbrooke, Gemma took the brave step of going up a weight to try and make the judo team, winning a "shoot out" match against opponents eight kilos heavier.

She made her big move for a place by winning the British European Cup event in May, then picking up the silver medal at the Romanian World Cup event earlier this month.

Gemma said: "If I'm selected for 2012 it will be my first Olympic Games, so I will try and make sure I enjoy it, fight as hard as I possibly can and try my best to win a medal."

"The support I receive from the Greenwich Starting Blocks allows me to train full time. Without it I would have to get a part-time job, which would effect my performance and results."

Cllr Chris Roberts, leader of the council in the royal borough, said: "Zoe and Gemma are prime examples of how supporting young people through Greenwich Starting Blocks means we can all share in their successes in 2012 and beyond."

"The charity is committed to helping our young people's sporting dreams come true. The Royal Borough of Greenwich has many talented up and coming sports stars and we want to make sure that they receive the right support."

A THANK-YOU letter from Her Majesty The Queen is one of the extraordinary artefacts that will be on show when a travelling exhibition on the life of comedy legend Bob Hope arrives at the Greenwich Heritage Centre next month.

In it, Her Majesty thanks Hope and his wife Delores for the flowers and chocolates they sent following a lunch with her.

The free exhibition, 'Bob Hope: A World of Laughter,' which opens on July 13. It depicts many aspects of the Eltham-born comedian who was given the Freedom of the Borough for his 100th birthday.

It's been painstakingly put together by the World Golf Hall of Fame and Museum, and is supported by the Bob and Delores Hope Foundation.

Thanks for the memory

Other exhibits include a money clip presented to keen golfer Hope by the Professional Golfers' Association of America.

He carried this money clip, engraved with 'Bob Hope - In Gratitude 1942' with him until the end of his life in 2003.

The exhibition also features more than 170 artefacts, including 200 vintage photos and video displays. Also on show will be his KBE and CBE from The Queen, and his honorary Oscar statuette.

His daughter Linda said: "The World Golf Hall of Fame has put together an amazing display that illustrates his humour, his love of travel and his love of golf. I am sure that this exhibition will be a fun experience for both young and old."

Bob Hope was born in Craigton Road, Eltham in 1903 and emigrated to the USA aged four. Eltham Parish Hall in Wythfield Road, Eltham, was renamed The Bob Hope Theatre after the Hollywood star visited in 1980.

London's calling

Torchbearing honour means trip to the capital for sporty fundraiser

by Gemma Lucas

JOANNE Hazell had never had the opportunity to visit London.

Now she'll have the chance to visit the capital during one of the most exciting and historically significant events of the century as an Olympic torchbearer.

"All my friends are jealous," said the 31-year-old who is nine months pregnant.

Joanne, who lives in Carlisle, is one of 35 torchbearers from across the country who LOCOG have allocated to carry the Olympic Torch through Greenwich on July 21.

She's thrilled as it means coming to London and is looking forward to the experience of being in the "hub of it" as much as she possibly can.

She told GT: "By the time my slot comes around in Greenwich I'll be a new mum and so it will be an extra special time for me and the memories of it will stay with me forever. This is definitely a money-can't-buy moment and a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity."

Joanne works as a sales administrator for a car retailer in Carlisle and it was her nominated to be a torchbearer by work colleagues. They believed she deserved nomination because of her charity fundraising work; in 2010 Joanne undertook a six-month challenge "running, hiking, trekking, cycling and then some" in order to raise £2,153.00 for a local hospice. The challenges she undertook were all sports related and included the National Three Peaks climb and an 84-mile walk along Hadrian's Wall.

OLYMPIC LEGACY

The avid sportswoman is doubly excited to have the opportunity to visit Greenwich and to have such a major role as a torchbearer in a location at the heart of the events: "I feel very honoured and privileged to be part of the London 2012 Olympics and can't wait for my torchbearer place to come around," Joanne enthused.

● While we look forward to welcoming Joanne to the borough, it's a shame she couldn't run in her home town and her place go to a Greenwich resident who had been nominated by their fellow citizens. We would like to hear from royal borough residents who will be carrying the torch in Greenwich or somewhere else?

MP Theresa Villiers, the Minister of State for Transport, called in at the Crossrail station site at Woolwich Arsenal last Wednesday (June 13) to check on work in progress.

She talked about the project with Greenwich and Woolwich MP Nick

by Dick Townsend-Smith

Raynsford and the leader of Royal Greenwich, Cllr Chris Roberts.

Construction work started earlier this year on the Woolwich leg of the £14.8 billion project that will link Maidenhead in the west with Abbey Wood in the east. It will provide a high-speed service to major destinations, and Heathrow Airport will be just 45 minutes away.

Cllr Roberts said: "Crossrail is the single most important project that will secure the regeneration of Woolwich. It will not only create new jobs and new business, but it will also provide more efficient travel for local people working outside the borough, and for people who need to commute into Greenwich."

Win tickets to the Game

RESIDENTS have until Friday (June 22) to nominate someone for tickets to the Games.

It's the deadline to a royal borough campaign which is awarding tickets to the Olympics and Paralympics for people who have inspired others.

The royal borough has secured tickets to both the Olympics and Paralympics and is offering them as prizes in a campaign called 'Who has inspired you?' It's calling on residents to nominate someone who has inspired them because of their outstanding work in the community, in the arts, or through sporting achievements.

If you can explain why they inspire you in no more than 300 words you could win your nominee a ticket to experience the greatest sporting event on earth.

All nominees must live or work in the Royal Borough of Greenwich. Nominations will be chosen by the Mayor from five categories:

- Outstanding young person (under 18)
- Outstanding individual (18+)
- Sporting achievement
- Cultural achievement
- Contribution to the community

Winners will receive a pair of tickets to a range of sporting events including the cycling, judo, swimming, archery, wheelchair basketball and the equestrian jumping events as well as the opening ceremonies to the Olympics and Paralympics.

(Any under-16s will need to be accompanied to the events by an adult).

● To enter you can visit www.royalgreenwich.gov.uk/inspirationaward to complete a nomination form online or complete the form right and send to: Who Has Inspired You? c/o Communications Royal Borough of Greenwich, 3rd Floor The Woolwich Centre Wellington Street SE18 6HQ

Nominations must be received by June 22 and winners will be announced on July 10.

The road ahead

Work starts on 2012 routes

ROADWORKS to prepare royal borough roads for the Olympic and Paralympic Games start next week.

In Charlton Park Lane, work runs from next Tuesday, June 26, to Tuesday, July 24 to remove speed humps and install electronic speed warning signs.

It's part of a London-wide programme which includes installing temporary traffic islands and barriers at junctions, and changing around 1,300 sets of traffic signals to deal with the expected increase in traffic.

Most of the works are being carried out overnight from Friday, July 20 to Tuesday, July 24. The roadworks are being carried out so that the capital will be ready for the temporary road changes needed to create the Olympic Route Network and Paralympic Route Network (ORN/PRN); the 109-mile network of roads linking Games and accommodation venues.

THE Games mean there will be temporary changes to local bus services. Parts of routes, timings and bus stop locations may be affected. Information will be posted on bus stops and is available at www.tfl.gov.uk

Thirty miles of the ORN will include Games Lanes, which will be available only to vehicles carrying the 'Games Family' – the athletes, officials, media and some sponsors.

The ORN and Games Lanes are being managed by Transport for London (TfL), and will be operational and enforced from 7am to 7pm each day from Wednesday, July 25 until Tuesday, August 14. They will not be in force between the Olympic and Paralympic Games. The smaller Paralympic Route Network will be operational and enforced from 6am on August 27 and will end on Tuesday, September 11.

● Get help planning your route at www.getaheadofthegames.com

Road closures for temporary bridges

ROMNEY Road and Shooters Hill Road are to be closed overnight so that temporary footbridges for spectators going to Games events in Greenwich Park can be installed. The work is being carried out by Games organisers LOCOG, who have written to 24,000 residents about it and installed local signage. Work on a bridge over Romney Road from the Old Royal Naval College to the National Maritime Museum was due to start on Sunday and continue between 8pm and 6am on June 24. Work for the Shooters Hill Road bridge from Blackheath to Circus Field is set to run from 9pm to 5am on June 21 and June 26.

Parties in the parks!

PLEASANCE SURPRISE: revellers enjoy a jubilee picnic in East Greenwich Pleasance for the first Parkfest event earlier this month

Green spaces host musical celebrations in the great outdoors

THIS year's Royal Greenwich PARKSfest is now well underway, with 20 events being held in 11 parks between now and the end of July.

It's the fourth year of the festival, which brings people together and helps communities to feel proud

by Dick Townsend-Smith

of themselves. The event is funded by the royal borough and organised by the Greenwich Parks Forum, with individual events run by Friends of the Parks groups. "It's a key part of the Greenwich Festival," said Terry Powley, Chair of the forum.

He added: "The important thing about PARKSfest is that it is a series of local events organised by local people performed by local artists and held in local places. Local people see the PARKSfest events as a traditional and highly-valued feature of the summer. It fulfils exactly the royal borough's aim of attracting more local people into local parks to enjoy cultural activities. It is even evident that people are coming from further afield to participate in the open air concerts."

And he stressed: "We get more than 10,000 people coming to the events, and people look forward to it because it's become a lively and vibrant tradition and draws people together. We have kept up our record of involving a new Friends of Parks group each year, and this year it is Eaglesfield."

There was music, dance and costumed performers in Eaglesfield Park on Shooters Hill, last Friday and Sunday Music in Well Hall Pleasance on Sunday.

The next events are:

- Sunday, June 24, Eltham Park South, Concert in the Park from 3-4.30pm.
- Saturday, June 30, Fairy Hill, Diamond Jubilee Fayre 2-4pm.
- Sunday, July 1, The Tarn, Open Air Concert, 6-9pm
- Well Hall Pleasance, Sunday Music, 2-4pm.

COMMEMORATIVE MONEY: former mayor Brian Sullivan presents coins to Willow Lane pupils

PUPILS had cause for a double celebration when they realised their primary school was marking its diamond jubilee along with the Queen. Youngsters at Kidbrooke Park Primary enjoyed a double diamond jubilee party on the Friday before the nation's four-day celebration for Her Majesty. They spent Friday afternoon marking the fact that their school was 60 years old as well – and held a double diamond jubilee party. The school, in Hargood Road, was opened in 1952, and some of its very first pupils were invited back to join in the fun. Headteacher Cathy Johnston explained: "When we heard it was our 60th we tried to find out more about its past. We went to the Greenwich Heritage Centre, and they found a report for us from a local paper that reported its opening in September 1952.

"We put an advert in Greenwich Time and invited any pupils who were here between 1952 and 1962 to come along and have tea and cake with us. Several of them did, including a lady who had her 60th birthday last week and was a pupil here in the 1950s."

Pupils made their own sandwiches for a tea party in the playground. They all dressed in red, white and blue, or came as kings and queens and staff and parents joined in the dressing up as well.

The children released 300 red, white and blue balloons, and gave displays of maypole and line dancing, and the hokey-cokey.

The reception year performed nursery rhymes, and Years 3 to 5 gave a zumba display. "The children were brilliant," said Cathy.

"Our special guest was Col Cyril Young, the Deputy Lieutenant for Royal Greenwich, and he left the children in awe at his uniform and his dress sword."

BALLOONACY: Kidbrooke Park pupils mark the school's own jubilee

Parking in your area during the the Games

Festivals lift off!

The Greenwich and Docklands International Festival begins later this week with an outdoor spectacular and a world premiere...

SCENE

THE Greenwich and Docklands International Festival starts this week, with town-full of big performances.

It's part of the royal borough's summer-long series of events, The Greenwich Festivals, and runs from June 21-30.

The Greenwich Fair takes over Greenwich town centre on June 23-24, re-living the Victorian era of the ghoulish from centuries past.

It was one of Charles Dickens's favourite events until it was outlawed for becoming too risqué. On show will be a giant pig, a flying grand piano and a Catalan labyrinth.

THE GREENWICH FESTIVALS

THE world premiere of Crow comes to the Borough Hall later this week.

The puppet and dance spectacular was developed by the Handspring Puppet Company - the team behind the original War Horse production, before it was made into a movie blockbuster by Steven Spielberg.

It was co-commissioned by the Royal Borough of Greenwich and runs from June 21-July 7. It's not a narrative-based performance, but is based on the Ted Hughes poetry collection of the same name, which the writer described as his 'masterpiece'.

The book was comprised of more than 40 poems and director Mervyn Millar picked a dozen which he felt would suit the mood of the piece.

Eleven puppets - ranging from complex wire and lever operated creations to the simplest of hand-held models - join dancers on the stage at the hall on Royal Hill, in the show which is supported by Greenwich Theatre and the National Theatre.

A trademark of the Handspring company is that the puppeteers are always visible to the audience, which on this occasion will be right on top of the action.

Crow was adapted by Olivier Award nominee, writer and director Matthew Dunster and artistic director Mervyn Millar.

Crow is on at the Borough Hall from June 21-July 7, Mon-Sat @ 8pm. Tickets are £12-£18. Box office: 020 8858 7755 or www.greenwichtheatre.org.uk

PROMETHEUS AWAKES

is an outdoor show that's going to make a HUGE entrance this weekend.

The UK's Graeae theatre company has teamed up with Spaniards, La Fura dels Baus to bring together 72 performers and a 30-foot giant (right), in the grounds of the Queen's House on June 22. Six people operate the monster, and a further 50 create a 'human net'. The show starts under the cover of darkness at 10pm.

There will also be pyrotechnics and light shows. It's free to attend.

The Greenwich Festivals runs throughout the summer, and includes PARKSfest from June 2-July 29, the Peninsula Festival from July 19-August 12, Comedy Festival from July 13-20, and a Dance Festival on now until July 15.

GREENWICH GALLERY@LINEAR HOUSE

Our Villages - Photography Exhibition
Mon Jun 18- Thurs Jun 28

A PHOTOGRAPHIC exhibition called Our Villages makes its debut at Linear House in Greenwich this week. Six local artists present their 12 images reflecting the surroundings of Greenwich and other neighbouring boroughs.

Co-ordinator of the exhibition, Ann-Marie Glasheen told Scene: "We thought it would be nice to come up with a project focused on London because of the Olympics. We picked a part of our area we felt was almost village-like and bijoux." She added: "Some of our work reflects the parts of the borough that are untouched by modernity, whilst others have focused on the more busy type of villages we have in this surrounding."

Another local artist in the group Summeet Kaur chose to photograph the area of Greenwich Village and Royal Hill. Ann-Marie said: "Some of our artists focused on the royal borough as it's quite a busy tourist type area, however the atmosphere and feeling of the place is very much like a village. There are some real hearts of communities dotted around this part of South East London."

Royal Borough of Greenwich's Choice Based Lettings Scheme

Edition 292

How the lettings policy works

Housing applicants are placed within 'Bands' according to the Royal Borough of Greenwich's policy for letting homes. Your band information is on the letter that the Council sent you when you registered, or when your circumstances changed. Property adverts say which band can apply and any other criteria. When all the bids are received, the property is then offered to: For properties advertised for band A and band B - the applicant who has had this priority status for the longest time. For properties advertised for band C applicants - the applicant who has been registered on the Council's list for the longest time.

BAND

- A is for applicants in unsatisfactory housing, including people moving due to demolition and those underoccupying their homes.
- B is for applicants the Royal Borough of Greenwich must prioritise according to the law, particularly homeless people, and others with an urgent need to move for medical or welfare reasons.
- C is for all applicants on the housing register, including those that are in priority bands A and B.

How do I apply?

Get on the list

First, you've got to be on the housing waiting list to join the scheme. If you're not, register an application on line at www.royalgreenwich.gov.uk

Find your applicant number

It will be on the letter you've already had from the Royal Borough of Greenwich about the new scheme. You'll need that number and the reference number of the property you're after, which will be on the advert.

Pick out your ideal property

by looking in Greenwich Time or regularly checking the website:

www.royalgreenwich.gov.uk/homes

Click on your preference on the website. If you don't have a computer, you can always use one for free in either your neighbourhood housing office, library or UK Online centre.

Apply in one of two ways

- Phone the 24-hour hotline 020 8921 4340. It's an automatic push-button system and calls will be charged at the normal local rate, or
- Via the Royal Borough of Greenwich's website www.royalgreenwich.gov.uk/homes

The next edition of GreenwichHomes will be available on Wednesday 27 June 2012 at midday and will include any Housing Association properties when available. Closing date for all applications for this issue is midnight on Sunday 24 June 2012.

Seaside and Country Scheme

This scheme offers one and two bedroom flats and bungalows on the Coast and in the countryside, in the South East and West of England.

In order to be considered you must be:

- A Council or Housing Association tenant
- At least 60 years old (if someone is moving with you they must be over 55 years old).

Your removal costs will be met if you are a Council tenant and you do move to a Seaside and Country home. To register, or find out more about the scheme, contact the Access and Allocation section on Tel: 020 8921 2941

If you are a Housing Association tenant you need to contact your landlord to register. Further information is available from the scheme management organisation at www.housingmoves.org

Small is beautiful the Under Occupation scheme

If you are living in a Council property that is too big for you, we can help you to move to somewhere smaller.

The Council will pay your removal costs, and £350 for each bedroom gained.

To join the scheme you must be willing to move to a home with two bedrooms less than you have now:

- 3 bedroom to a 1 bedroom home
- 3 bedroom parlour/4 bedroom to a 1 or 2 bedroom home
- 5 bedroom to a 3 bedroom (or smaller) home

Important Notice

Changes to the rents and tenancies of some advertised housing association properties.

Affordable Housing

Currently the rent level for the properties you see advertised in Greenwich Homes is significantly lower than full market rents in private sector housing.

From now you will now be seeing some housing association properties advertised for higher rents, up to eighty percent of the market rent. These rents will also include the service charge that you will need to pay for the property. We will use the phrase Affordable Housing on the adverts to help you identify these properties.

Please note the Council will continue to advertise all the homes it owns at the standard rent level.

You can bid for properties advertised as Affordable Housing in exactly the same way as for other advertised properties. If you are successful the housing association may want to check you have enough income to pay the higher rent, whether you are working or on benefits. If you are currently a housing association tenant the rent you pay on your present home will not be affected by this change.

Fixed term tenancies

You will also notice that the tenancies for Affordable Housing and some other housing association properties may now be for a shorter period than the present lifetime tenancies offered by housing associations. The phrase Fixed term tenancy will be used in the adverts to identify these properties. The tenancy details will be explained to you if you are successful when you view the property.

Please think about these changes when bidding for an Affordable housing property and make sure you can afford the home that you choose.

Jack and Jamie do us proud at Games regatta

THE royal borough picked up two gold medals at the biggest ever Thames Water London Youth Games Regatta at Docklands on Saturday, June 9.

Around 900 young people from 30 boroughs took part in the event, more than three-times the number who took part in the re-launched Thames Water Regatta in 2008 across rowing, kayaking and sailing competitions.

Crown Woods College student Jack Davidson picked up the first gold medal of the day after triumphing in the male junior single scull race. The 16-year-old beat rowers from 10 other boroughs.

He said: "It feels pretty good to have won, it was a good race and was fun. It was quite rough weather, pretty windy going down the course, which probably did affect my performance but in good weather I hope I still would have won. I won last year as well so I'm going to come back for the treble."

Overall, Royal Greenwich finished ninth in the kayak slalom, ninth in the kayak sprint, fifth in the rowing and 15th in the sailing.

Jamie Grover, 15, was looking to make it three wins in a row in the senior kayak slalom. She was leading after her first run and then posted the quickest time of the day to win by a comfortable margin.

The St Paul's Academy student said: "It feels really good. I train five times a week at Danson Park and sometimes at Southmere Lake in Thamesmead.

"I train hard and put a lot of work into it, so to have a good final result is good. I am in the GB set-up for canoe polo. It means a lot to compete for Greenwich, where I live and go to school."

Former competitors at the London Youth Games included Paralympic rower Ryan Chamberlain. He said: "It has brought back a lot of memories. It was great to see all the kids having fun and seeing the sheer number of people involved has impressed me."
